	19.1.2004 Petitioner by Shri Vivek Ranjan Tiwari, Advocate. Shri Prashant Mishra, Advocate takes notice on behalf of the respondent. Heard on I.A. No.425/2004. The petitioner has moved this application seeking amendment in the petition. The application is allowed. Let necessary amendments be incorporated. Heard on admission. By this petition filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India the petitioner has challenged the method of evaluation and examination papers conducted by the Chhattisgarh Public Service Commission in the year 2003. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that same questions were asked in the year 2003 which were asked in the examination of 2002 with regard to the examination papers of subjects 'Geography' and 'Animal Husbandry'. Since question papers of these two subjects were repeated, therefore, scaling system should have been adopted by the P.S.C. for which learned counsel for the petitioner wants to make a representation and he further submitted that the P.S.C. may be directed to decide the representation in an objective manner with a reasoned order to which learned counsel for the respondent has no objection. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, I am of the
